FOREWORD

The late Dr. George Henry Abbott, B.A., M.B., Ch.M., F.R.A.C.S., of 185, Macquarie Street, Sydney, N.S.W., a former President of the Australian Numismatic Society, was well-known as a keen collector of Ancient Greek coins, early British gold, British Colonial, countermarked silver, etc.

As the Catalogue of the Collection will show, he made a speciality of Roman Colonial pieces, with reverses of Asklepios and Hygiaea and other types connected with medicine, many of which from the Collection of Sir Hermann Weber.

The Abbott Collection, although not very extensive, should offer collectors opportunities of acquiring some desirable specimens in their varied series.
